

Mrs. Elizabeth Wahlquist Buried Here

Mrs. Elizabeth Campbell Wahlquist, 68, widow of Charles J. Wahlquist (former residents of Heber) died Saturday following a month's illness of heart trouble, at the home of her son, Supt. Keith Wahlquist of Weber County schools, at 726 Twenty-fifth street, Ogden. Funeral services were held at noon August 20th, in the fifth ward chapel, with Bishop Austin H. Shaw in charge, and with many relatives and friends from Wasatch attending.

Following the Ogden services the body was brought to Heber for interment, short services being held at the cemetery.

Mrs. Wahlquist was born in Heber, March 11, 1867, a daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth Davis Campbell. She was married to Mr. Wahlquist in Salt Lake City, August 28, 1895, and following their marriage they lived in Heber until 1917, with the exception of two years spent in Provo. The family moved to Myton in 1917 and Mr. Wahlquist died there in 1923. Mrs. Wahlquist has made her home in Ogden since 1923 and has been an active worker in the Church there, as she was here.

Surviving are four sons and one daughter: Keith, LeRoy and Mabel Wahlquist of Ogden, Dr. John T. Wahlquist of Salt Lake City and Chas. F. Wahlquist of Randalet, Utah. There are also 15 grand children; one brother, James Campbell, and one sister, Mrs. Mary C. Clyde, both of Heber.
